

```

import requests
import json

ServiceNow instance and table
instance = "your_instance_name" # e.g. "dev12345" table = "incident" # or your custom table like "u_my_table" url = f"https://{instance}.service-now.com/api/now/table/{table}"

Authentication (Basic Auth)
username = "your_username" password = "your_password"

Headers
headers = {
    "Content-Type": "application/json",
    "Accept": "application/json"
}

Sample data to import
data = {
    "short_description": "Test ticket from Python",
    "urgency": "2",
    "impact": "3"
}

Send the POST request
response = requests.post(url, auth=(username, password), headers=headers, data=json.dumps(data))

Print the result
if response.status_code == 201:
    print("Record created successfully.") print("Response:", response.json())
else:
    print("Failed to create record.")
    print("Status Code:", response.status_code)
    print("Response:", response.text)

```